IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH

Commonwealth of Virginia,

Plaintiff

v.

Docket #: CR19-884

Rapheal Dekendrick Shields

DOB: 9/18/1994

SSN:

Defendant

Stipulation of Commonwealth's Evidence

The parties agree that the Commonwealth's evidence would show that on or about November 24th, 2018, the defendant committed the following offenses in the City of Virginia Beach: Carnal Knowledge of a Minor, Procure Minor for Obscene Material, Possess with the Intent to distribute > 1/2oz < 5 lbs.

On or about November 24th, 2018, the defendant, Rapheal Dekendrick Shields who is over the age of 18, was communicating with C.M. a minor the age of 14. C.M. was a student at the middle school where the defendant was a security guard. The defendant asked C.M. to sneak out of her house and get into his car around 2:30 AM. The defendant then drove C.M. to his residence, which is located in the City of Virginia Beach where he engaged in vaginal sexual intercourse with C.M. During his interview with Police, the defendant admitted to selling marijuana out of his residence. Marijuana weighing more than 1/2oz but less than 5 pounds was found in the residence, along with a digital scale and packaging material.

All of these events took place in the City of Virginia Beach.

WE AGREE THAT THIS WOULD BE THE COMMONWEALTH'S EVIDENCE.
